

TRAINING & CAPACITY BUILDING

Training adds value to organizations by enhancing employee performance, boosting satisfaction, and fostering adaptability to change. It is crucial for employee development as it cultivates a skilled and confident workforce, promotes consistent standards, and contributes to innovation, ultimately positioning the organization for long-term success. For this RRF employs have received following training from external & internal resources-

Internal Training

RRF internally have provided training to its 1011 staff from different level in this fiscal year 22-23. The following data shows the types of training and participants-

SL	Types of Training	Participants
1	Microfinance Management Foundation Training for Credit Officer	663
2	Accounting & Software Operation Training for Assistant Branch Accountant	165
3	SME Pre Service Training for BDO	30
4	Software & Management Training for RM & BM	153
Total		1011

External Training

RRF staff received training from external organization such as PKSF, MRA and other development partners for capacity building and development. The following data shows the types of training and participants

SL	Types of Training	Training Provider	Partici Pants
1	Training for MF Program	PKSF	08
2	Training for Development Program	PKSF, UNFPA	35
3	Microfinance Operation & Management Training	MRA	34
Total			77

